MENU PROPOSALS

Dear Guest,

planning your wedding is not so easy.

Our Wedding Kit will guide you in the organization of your wedding banquet.

Decide the ideal location it's the first step that must reflect to the maximum your needs.

The steps to consider for your final evaluation are as follows:

- Menu price according to your budget;
- Location aesthetics;
- Assortment of the equipment available for the mise en place of the tables;
- Quality food;
- Quality service;
- Assistance service in the organization;
- Any free allowances or incentives granted.

Also building a menu is not so easy...

Inside the Kit you will find a selection of menus designed ad hoc to meet everyone's palate. You can choose the one that best reflects your needs (food or price).

At the confirmation of the banquet we will set together the date for the tasting of the wedding menu to have the possibility to choose which dishes confirm or, alternatively, replace: our specialists will suggest you the best.

We have always been proud of the presentation and quality of our dishes as well as a fine service.

And finally, the Wedding Cakes, that are our flagship. When it says that “taste meets aesthetics”!
